Provided that at the end of the tenancy the Lessee shall not be entitled to any payment allowance compensation or rights founded upon the custom of the district in which the demised premises are situated and further that all money due to Her Majesty Her heirs or successors from the Lessee for rent breaches of Covenant or otherwise shall be deducted from any compensation to which the Lessee may be entitled under these presents or otherwise.

19 Provided always And these presents are upon this condition that if any rent hereby reserved shall be in arrear for forty days or if there shall be a breach of any of the Covenants and conditions on the part of the Lessee herein contained or if the Lessee shall become bankrupt or either voluntarily or involuntarily do or suffer anything in consequence whereof his interest in the demised premises shall without such consent as aforesaid become vested in any other person except by bequest or by representation as Executor or administrator. Then and in any of the said cases the Lessor may ^{re-}enter and retain possession ^{of the demised premises} as fully in all respects as if these Presents had not been made and in case of any such recovery there shall be payable by the Lessee to Her Majesty her heirs and successors in addition to any rent then due a proportionate part of the accruing rent for the then current quarter of a year up to the day on which such recovery shall have been made.

20. It is hereby agreed and declared that the term "Lessor" hereinafter means the Queen's Majesty her heirs successors and assigns or so long as the reversion of the demised premises is vested in the Crown the Commissioner or Commissioners or other the person or persons for the time being entitled by law to the management and direction thereof and that all rights and obligations of the Lessee under these presents shall devolve with the leasehold interest hereby created and be accordingly enjoyed observed and performed by the person or persons in whom such interest shall for the time being be vested.

And the said George Fulley doth hereby direct that this Deed shall be deemed to be fully and sufficiently enrolled by the deposit of a duplicate thereof in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Inrolments and the filing or making an entry of such deposit by the Keeper of the said Records and Inrolments. In Witness whereof the said parties to these presents of the second and third parts have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

BANK ALLOTMENTS, LYNDHURST.

RULES.

1. The Rent of each Allotment to be 2s. 6d. for the period to 31st December, 1888, and 5s. per year afterwards, payable in advance on the 1st of January in each year.
2. The Rates and Taxes will be paid by the Crown.
3. The tenancy may be terminated by six months' notice on either side, to be given on or before July 1st in any one year.
4. The Allotment shall be worked by spade husbandry alone, and shall be kept in good heart, and the footpaths and fences adjoining each Allotment shall be trimmed and kept in order by the Tenant thereof.
5. No part of any Allotment shall be sub-let.
6. In case the Rent shall not be paid as aforesaid, or in case of a breach of any of the conditions above mentioned, one month's notice shall be given to the Occupier to pay the Rent or to observe the Rules, and at the expiration of that time (unless the notice be complied with) the Crown shall be at liberty to take possession of the Allotment, and the Tenant shall at once quit it and give up quiet possession.
7. All disputes between Allotment-holders shall be settled by the Deputy Surveyor of the New Forest, whose decision shall be final in all cases.

I agree to take the Allotment numbered _____ on the plan of Allotments Bank, which I have seen, for one year as from January 1st, 1887, and so on from year to year, and I agree to be bound by and to observe the Rules above printed.
